UPDATE ON CONSORTIUM GRANTS AND DEADLINE FOR RECOMMENDATIONS; AND
ORDER TO FILE CONFLICT OF INTEREST FORMS

On Friday, August 4, 2017, Executive Director Shulman reported to the Court that the Consortium process for submitting applications to obtain grants from the funds from the SeniorTrust/ElderTrust settlement has closed. 38 proposals have been submitted in the four areas designated to assist seniors: housing, legal assistance, dental and transportation. The applications are geographically diverse from all areas of the state. The total amount of money requested is $261 million. The Consortium, and Executive Director Shulman and Attorney Brown for the Tennessee Commission on Aging and Disability, have scheduled a retreat the week of August 21 to review the applications for grants and to begin the work on recommendations to the Court.

It is ORDERED that review of the applications and the notices and recommendations of the Consortium shall be provided to the Court no later than October 2, 2017.

It is additionally ORDERED that by August 18, 2017, conflict of interest forms shall be filed with the Court from the members of the Consortium, the two attorneys, Mr. Davidson and Ms. Murdock, representing the Receiver, and Mr. Shulman and Ms. Brown.
